

Friday 8th September 2017

Dear Parent/Carer,

The Outstanding Owls have a fabulous opportunity to see the live stage production of 'Awful Auntie' by David Walliams. This will also be our class story book in the second half of this term (Autumn). The production will be held at Preston Guild Hall. We will be using Simms Travel to transport us to and from the venue.

The trip is not until Friday 19th January however, we have secured seats in the stalls and the transport in advance so that we would not be disappointed! As we have booked in advance, payment will need to be made to the company before the half term holidays by school. We are only charging the total cost of the transport and group ticket price which comes to £27 per child. This can be paid in small instalments if you wish or all at once. The final date for payment will be Friday 29th September. All payments must be made to the class teacher and in named envelopes.

We will be leaving school at 8am promptly so the children will need to be at school for 7:45am in order to be registered and have a quick toilet stop before we depart (any travel sickness medication can be given to the class teacher at this point). We aim to return to school by 3:15 which is all traffic dependent.

The children will need to take a substantial packed lunch that they will eat on our return journey to school. Please ensure there are no fizzy, isotonic or energy drinks in your child's packed lunch; chocolate and sweets in lunches are not permitted unfortunately. However, pupils are advised to take an additional drink and bag of sweets (boiled or jelly)/bag or popcorn or crisps to eat whilst watching the production as this will reduce any further cost of buying products at the show.

Our pupils will need to wear their school uniform and have a coat and bag to keep their belongings in; no electrical devices are permitted to travel with. Details will again be sent out closer to the trip date.

This should be a fantastic experience for the children and something to look forward to post Christmas!

Please complete and return the slip to Miss Head with part or full payment.

Outstanding balances to be paid in full to Miss Head by Friday 29th September 2017.

If you have any queries regarding the costing of the trip or anything else, please do not hesitate to pop in and see me.

Yours Sincerely,
Stephanie Head
