

North Walney PTA Newsletter!

NEXT MEETING: Thursday 16th November 330pm

What's been happening?!

Well, that's our first half term over and the PTA have been working hard behind the scenes organizing our Halloween Disco and making arrangements for our Xmas Fayre—exciting! Thankyou for supporting our non-uniform day last term, we raised £90 which is fantastic! We have lots happening in the next few weeks so please have a read and if you can help in anyway let us know !

Halloween Disco!

On 31st October the PTA are holding a Halloween Disco. If you haven't already got your ticket, don't worry you can still purchase one from the school office, for £1.

There will be music, games and prizes for best costumes, and there will be hotdogs, cakes and other treats for sale so come and join us 445pm til 545pm.

All children must be accompanied by an adult and please no scary masks, there will be little ones present. Donations of cakes to sell will be greatly appreciated.

We look forward to seeing you there!

31st October
4:45pm—5:45pm
tickets £1

Scholastic Bookfayre

You may remember last year we organised a Scholastic Bookfayre and due to the fantastic response, we have arranged for another this year.

Books will be on display for 3 nights after school, week commencing 6th November after school. Perfect for some Xmas shopping!

Easyfundraising.org

Do you shop online? Would you like to raise money for your school without having to do anything? North Walney PTA are registered with easyfundraising. All you need to do is sign up and then whenever you are online shopping go through this website at no extra cost and a % comes back to the school! As easy as that—please take a look every penny helps.
