

Summer Term-Week 2

Hello Kingfishers. I hope everyone is keeping safe with their families.

English-Reading and Writing

Focus text:

The Train to Impossible Places by P.G. Bell

This week is all about the first two chapters of this magical story. You will have five sessions linked to the book.

Maths

Why not take a look at BBC bitesize daily lessons this week and choose from week beginning 27th April?

Other Subjects

Look at BBC Bitesize Daily to see lessons for History, Geography, Science, RE and Music this week.

You can also watch Bitesize Daily programmes on BBC iPlayer, on any device, and on TV via the Red Button. These are 20 minute TV shows, each designed to target a specific age group

Don't forget to keep checking your 2Dos on Purple Mash too

PE

Joe Wicks is live each day on YouTube. Follow his daily plans online to stay fit and healthy.

Or why not carry on with the online Cosmic Yoga from last week- there are lots of good themes to keep you going...

Remember exercise not only keeps us fit but is also great for our well-being!

Great Poetry Reading Day

On the 28th April people around the country celebrate great poems that people have written.

Have a try writing your own poem about your time in lockdown so far. Maybe in years to come people will be celebrating your great poetry!

Remember it doesn't have to rhyme!

Mindfulness

Why not have a quiet moment and make a 'magical jar' where you can put all of your wishes for things you would like to do when lockdown is over. Every time you wish you could do something, go somewhere, treat yourself, see someone you love or visit a new place write it down and put it in jar. When lockdown is over you can pull the wishes out and do them!

This activity is great for your mind and will give you lots of things to look forward to during this difficult time.
